The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar containing <http://www.townofmorrisville.org/transportationplanupdate>, which is circled in red. The website header includes navigation tabs for ABOUT US, COMMUNITY RESOURCES, TOWN DEPARTMENTS, YOUR GOVERNMENT, and BUSINESS. The main content area features the Morrisville North Carolina logo and a breadcrumb trail: Home > Town Departments > Planning > Transportation > Morrisville Comprehensive Transportation Plan. A large yellow arrow points from the text above to a circular icon in the bottom right corner of the page. The icon contains a person silhouette and the text 'QUESTIONS?', 'COMMENTS?', and 'CONCERNS?'. Below the icon, a text box reads: 'Click on icon above to submit comments, concerns or questions'. The main article title is 'Morrisville Comprehensive Transportation Plan' and the section is 'Overview'. The text describes the town's hiring of Kimley-Horn and Associates to update the 2009 Transportation Plan, focusing on roadways, bicycle and pedestrian facilities, and future transit routes. The update process is expected to take approximately 1 year, with the final plan going to Council for adoption in late Fall/Winter 2017.
